If a student has graduated and is coming back for a second degree:

- A student who has a bachelor's degree from OU or another accredited institution satisfies all general education requirements, except possibly P SC 1113 and HIST 1483 or HIST 1493. The Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education policy requires that all students graduating with a bachelor's degree from an Oklahoma state institution must complete U.S. Government (P SC 1113) and U.S. History (HIST 1483 or HIST 1493).

- At least 15 hours of the 30 must be completed at the 3000-4000 level.
- The student must complete an Application for Graduation.
- The student will receive a diploma for the second degree and have it noted on the transcript.

Special Facilities

Facilities at the OU School of Visual Arts include classrooms, large well-equipped instructional studios, darkrooms, a technology-based fabrication lab, installation spaces, video and film editing rooms, digital photography labs, and the Lightwell Gallery exhibition space. Separate from the Fred Jones Jr. Art Center, a 5,000 sq. ft. ceramics facility is located on the university's south campus near the Lloyd Noble Arena and features state-of-the-art equipment and kilns to handle all types of ceramic production. A 12,000 sq. ft. graduate studio facility is located northwest of campus. Media and library resources include a slide/media library containing over 150,000 slides; University of Oklahoma Bizzell Library, is the largest research library in the state of Oklahoma containing almost 4 million volumes; and the Fine Arts Library houses books and periodicals on art, art history and design as well as on music, dance, drama and musical theatre. The Charles M. Russell Center for the Study of Art of the American West provides an extensive library on western art and a unique opportunity to study with authorities in the field.

The Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art, adjacent to the OU School of Visual Arts, is one of the finest university art museums in America. The museum sponsors speakers and numerous exhibitions, including the annual OU School of Visual Arts Students' Exhibition. The Mary and Howard Lester wing of the museum permanently houses the "Weitzenhoffer Collection of French Impressionism." The wing also includes galleries for other selections from the Museum's permanent collection, an auditorium, an orientation room, a classroom, and a museum store.

The Donald W. Reynolds Performing Arts Center, formerly known as Holmberg Hall, includes the renovated 700-seat performance hall featuring a domed ceiling, modern acoustical features and a stage tower. The Fine Arts Center provides the perfect setting for collaborative efforts in production and theatrical training. In addition to the 600-seat Elsie C. Brackett Theatre and the 250-seat Weitzenhoffer Theatre, the center contains two fully equipped dance studios and one practice studio. Classrooms, make-up room, scene and costume shops, and dressing rooms used by drama, dance, and musical theatre comprise a facility in which our students can work and learn to their fullest potential.

The School of Music is housed in three buildings: Stanley B. Catlett, Sr. Music Center, Holmberg Hall, and Carpenter Hall. The 25 million dollar Center contains administrative offices, faculty offices and studios, rehearsal suites, classrooms, MIDI labs, the Grant Fine Arts Library, a recording studio, and three performance halls, including the Paul F. An Academic Advisement Form is completed and signed by the faculty advisor during the conference. This completed form is turned in to the Dean's office that then lifts the students advising flag in the online enrollment system. The student's faculty advisor or the student's school is responsible for override/permissions into the online system to enable the student to enroll in courses requiring special permission. Once the advising flag has been lifted and all enrollment stops have been cleared, students may finalize their enrollment schedule in the online system or the Office of Enrollment Services in 230 Buchanan Hall. Students in the School of Music will schedule their advising appointment with Alyssa Lewis via iadvise.ou.edu.

Fine Arts Orientation

Instructions for completing the college online orientation are sent to students via OU email.

Math Policy

The Weitzenhoffer Family College of Fine Arts requires all declared fine arts students complete their college level math course within the first four semesters of enrollment at OU. Transfer students or newly declared fine arts majors who have not completed their college level math requirement will have two semesters in which to complete the requirement. Students who fail to meet this requirement will be restricted from upper-division fine arts courses except by permission of their Director and the Dean.

Completion of this requirement is tracked by the Fine Arts Dean's office. Students will receive a notification via OU email one semester prior to their deadline for fulfilling this requirement. Some schools within the college include this policy as part of their scholarship stipulations.

Students wishing to change majors must do so in the Weitzenhoffer Family College of Fine Arts Dean's Office by completion of the Change of Major request form. Prior to completing a change of major request in the Dean's office, the student must meet the admissions criteria as outlined in the admission and retention section.

Students wishing to change to a major in another college must meet the admission requirements and be accepted by that college before the major can be changed. The new college will complete the change of major/college request and will also request the student's records from their previous college.

Grade Information

A student must have a grade of C or higher in each course in his/her major. Each hour of A, B, C and D carries a grade point value as follows: A = 4, B = 3, C = 2, and D = 1. Grades of I, F and U as well as grades P and S carry no grade point value. They are not figured in the computation of a student's grade point average except for grades of F.

Fine Arts students are required to make a C or better in all courses taken within their respective schools. When a course has been repeated and the second grade was lower than the first, the higher grade will be used toward fulfilling graduation requirements. For additional information on the impact of repeat coursework on the student's GPA, the student should consult with the one of the academic counselors in the Dean's office.

Scholarship Information

Students who are majors in the Weitzenhoffer Family College of Fine Arts are encouraged to apply for scholarship support. A number of scholarships and awards are available to qualified students each academic year. Applications for scholarships and awards are available through one.ou.edu to students each spring semester and are awarded for the next academic year. The individual Schools within the Weitzenhoffer Family College of Fine Arts award scholarships based on specific criteria regarding a student's major, talent, merit or need. Initial scholarship considerations and offers are made following admission auditions in the spring. On occasion, the Dean's office grants minimal scholarships to students who have exhausted all other financial resources. Scholarships awarded by the dean are based on merit, special financial need, and unusual circumstances. Additional non-departmental scholarships and financial aid are available through the University of Oklahoma office of Financial Aid Services through one.ou.edu. The scholarship application deadline for incoming freshmen and transfer students begins in early December. The deadline for current students is early February. Visit scholarships.ou.edu for complete details.
