Minor

The requirements for a minor must be completed concurrently with the major degree requirements.

No minor may be added by completing courses after receiving the bachelor's degree.

At least six (6) credit hours must be earned in courses acceptable for residence credit by standards set forth by the Dodge College of Arts and Sciences, excluding transfer, correspondence, and examination (AP, CLEP, Advanced Standing) credit. Courses for the minor may not be taken Pass/No Pass.

No single course may be used by a student to satisfy a major requirement and a minor requirement. A course may be used, however, to satisfy both a major support requirement and a minor requirement.

Requests to substitute a minor requirement must be approved in writing by the Department of Classics.

- CL C 2413 may not be counted toward the Classical Archaeology minor.

REQUIRED COURSES

Students must successfully complete at least fifteen (15) hours of classical archaeology courses approved for minor credit from a list maintained by the Department. Up to six (6) hours of coursework from outside Classics and Letters (Anthropology, History, Religious Studies, or Art History) may be substituted for work in classical archaeology. A list of approved outside courses is maintained by the Department of Classics and Letters.
