General Information

The goal of the Division of Management and International Business is to educate students so that they can make strategic, administrative and/or supervisory contributions to organizations through critical thinking plus mastery of fundamental skills and concepts. Faculty are active in research plus have publications in leading academic and practitioner-oriented journals in the areas of Human Resources Management, International Business, Organizational Behavior, Social/Environmental Issues in Business, and Strategic Management. The course portfolio ranges from survey courses in cross-cultural management, human resource management, the legal environment of business, organizational behavior and the management of professional sports to skills based courses in consulting, contract law, negotiation and supervision as well as specialty courses including international human resources, natural gas markets, sports logistics and real property law. The award-winning faculty consists of both academics and practitioners which provides students with both an intellectual framework within which to understand world of management and real-world insights to help insure students' success. This combined approach is a dynamic strength of our unit, leading to an application oriented, integrative core approach to the classroom.

Programs & Facilities

Sports Business Association

The Sports Business Association is a student run organization that serves to develop business and leadership skills of our members. The SBA works with local, regional, and national organizations, industry leaders, and program alumni to design programming that fits all levels of professional development. The club is open to any OU student who wants to learn more about the sports business industry.

Energy Management Student Association

The EMSA provides an abundance of activities including energy industry programs, internship opportunities, scholarship interviews, community service, and more.

Capstone and International Business in Spain

The Division of Management & International Business offers B AD 4013, Business Policy and Strategy (Capstone), during the summer (late May, June) in Alcalá de Henares, a historic college town and UNESCO World Heritage Site just 30 minutes from Madrid. Transportation is readily available to allow students access to everything Madrid has to offer including concert halls, museums, shopping, and restaurants. Students from Price College will be on campus in Alcalá de Henares with other Spanish and international students. All classes are taught in English by Price College faculty, with the additional participation of professors from the University of Alcalá de Henares. Lectures complement other program activities that include business tours, trips to other cities and areas of Spain, visits to museums, and an introduction to Spanish culture and cuisine.

First Fidelity Bank Integrated Business Core

Undergraduate students have the opportunity to enroll in a one-semester (12 hours) project-based program called the First Fidelity Bank Integrated Business Core (IBC), which provides both real-world experience and an integrated introduction to concepts in at least three business disciplines. IBC students gain experience by creating and managing an actual start-up company funded by a loan up to $10,000 and a hands-on community service project on behalf of a non-profit campus or community organization. The program has had a nearly $13 million economic impact since 2000 and has received local, regional and national acclaim.

Undergraduate Study

Bachelor of Business Administration

The Energy Management, Bachelor of Business Administration is the first (and largest) of its kind in the nation - created in 1958. The energy-focused curriculum is comprised of classes in business, law, petroleum engineering, geology, and meteorology.

The Management, Bachelor of Business Administration prepares students to lead and communicate with people in a professional role. Jobs are available in almost every industry worldwide for managers with strong leadership qualities.

The International Business, Bachelor of Business Administration prepares students for the global business world of the 21st century. A unique feature of the program is that it is a Dual-Major program. Students are required to major in International Business, which provides an across-business-disciplines appreciation of the challenges and strategies for coping in the global business world in which we live today and will continue to live during your lifetime. Additionally, students are required to double major in Accounting, Economics, Entrepreneurship, Finance, Human Resource Management, Management Information Systems, Marketing, or Supply Chain Management.

The Sports Business, Bachelor of Business Administration program combines courses from faculty with extensive experience, exposure to hands-on projects, plus internship opportunities with all types of sports organizations.
